Liberty Baptist

Liberty Baptist elected church leaders, and organization personel last Sunday after the regular church conference. More than 150 places were filled to make up the church leadership for the year. Plans are being protected for Promotion Day which comes September 30, in the Sunday School and Training Union.

The Church maintains a regular program of activity, built around Sunday and Wednesday nights, with other meetings from time to time as necessary. The Church Council will meet soon to prepare a Calendar of Activities for 1963, and to help the organizations chart their course of activity.

The activities for next week include the regular choir meetings in the afternoon, with Youth Choir practice at 6:30, and the Hour of Power coming at 7:30. The Training Union will have its regular monthly meeting at 6:45.

The pastor's subjects for this Sunday are:

Morning: UP TO BETHEL
Evening: Keeping The Faith

There will be a Rummage Sale held on the grounds at Hardings Store on Rt. 26 between Appomattox and Bent Creek on Saturday, Sept. 15, beginning at 8 a.m. sponsored by W. S. C. S. of the Mt. Comfort Methodist Church.

MEMORIAL METHODIST

Two more Sundays remain in the Preparation Period for the FALL REVIVAL SERVICES which will be held the Week of September 30th.

Sunday will continue the Series of Morning Sermons by the minister on the Book of Revelation — "Today is our Opportunity", based on the Church at Philadelphia of the Seven Representative Churches of Revelation. The Sanctuary Choir will present special selections.

The Chapel Choir will furnish special music at the evening hour, 7:30 o'clock. The message subject — "Saved By Hope" will be another in series in preparation for the FALL REVIVAL SERVICES. The message will be taken from the eighth chapter of Romans, and will call for commitment to the Hope in the Resurrection and Redemption of Jesus as Saviour and Lord.

REVIVAL CHORUS REHEARSALS are being held each Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m., followed by the Prayer - Group in charge of the Commission on membership and evangelism.

The three choirs — Sanctuary Men's Chorus and Chapel Choir will combine for the Revival services in a mass Choral group for the singing of the old gospel songs of the church.

The Methodist men under the direction of Horace D. Folks, president, will meet in their first fall meeting, Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Social Hall of the Church. Program Chairman J. N. Jenning, has planned a very interesting and effective program. All men of the church and friends, are urged to plan to be in attendance.

Plans are being made for the beginning of the New Church School Year, October 1, with the organization of new classes and assignment of new teachers. Promotion Day will be observed in October — with presentation of special awards and honoria, for faithful and devoted service rendered during the past year. Mrs David M. Trent, chairman of the Commission on Education and Ben D. Wheeler with C. W. Smith, Church School Superintendents, are preparing for the special observances, for the beginning of the new Church School year.

Exceptionally fine attendance has been maintained for the Church School and the evening M. Y. F. meetings, during the recent months, and special emphasis is now being placed upon enlargement of the enrollment of the Church School for the fall season. Every member is urged to bring visitors each Sunday for the lesson sessions, and to remain for the morning worship service, at which time a nursery is conducted under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Jamerson, superintendent of Nursery Dpartment.

When he became a tender, dreaming youth,
Whose hopes, white - hannered, lifted to the skies,
When came some sharp and sadly wounding truth,
She cured the hurt within his wondering eyes.

Who knows but through great time and space,
Her heart still aches for him, still mother - wise,
To reach a broken - toy-Kiss the place—
And try to ease the wound within his eyes!

Looking back on the greatest package deal ever offered by man was when Phil Morris, the tobacconist, in 1933 said, "We have never seen a cigarette we know has the right combination of mildness and flavor to satisfy everybody. Accordingly, we are going to put a cigarette with them, from now on, and let the public decide for itself."

So sorry to hear of the death of Tom Ferguson of Appomattox today. The deceased was a dear friend of the writer and a loyal supporter of Virginia Confederate Veterans.
